

The Homework Club

Need help with your schoolwork or assignments?

English Maths
Science Reading

The Homework Club provides free support for Middle School and High School students from non-English speaking and refugee backgrounds.

This program is funded by the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC), through the Settlement Grants Program (SGP). It also receives support from a number of other community organizations.

The MCNT was established in 1977 as the peak organization representing the vibrant voice of Territorians of diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds.

We provide a range of programs and services aimed at empowering people from migrant and refugee backgrounds to fully participate in the social, cultural, economic and political life of our nation.

MCNT receives operational funding from the Northern Territory Government through the NT Office of Multicultural Affairs.

Multicultural Council of the Northern Territory Inc.

Shop 15 Malak Centre, Malak Place
Darwin NT 0812
PO Box 299 Karama,

Phone: (08) 8945 9122
Fax: (08) 8945 9155
E-mail: sgp@mcnt.org.au
Website: www.mcnt.org.au

The Multicultural Council of the Northern Territory Inc.

The Homework Club

Free Homework Support for Middle School and High School Students

Call Melanie on (08) 8945 9122 for more information

Questions

More information?

The Homework Club was established in August 2008 to provide school and homework support to young people from refugee and non-English speaking backgrounds.

The Homework Club is coordinated by a project officer at the Multicultural Council (MCNT) and run by a team of volunteer tutors.

Tutors come from a diverse range of backgrounds and are able to provide support in a number of subject areas. Tutors work with students on a 1:2 ratio. Students are matched with a tutor who specializes in their subject area.

The Homework Club also has computer and internet facilities for students to use for assignments, and there is a small library for borrowing books.

A healthy afternoon tea is provided as part of the program.

When is it open?

The Homework Club runs from 4.00 pm to 6.00 pm every Thursday afternoon of the school term.

Where is it held?

The community room at the Multicultural Council in Malak.

How much does it cost?

The Homework Club is free for everyone.

Who can attend?

The program is for young people attending middle school or high school from non-English speaking and refugee backgrounds.

How do I get there?

You will need to arrange your own transport with friends or family. The number 12 bus arrives in Malak around 4.10 pm and departs at approximately 6.10 pm.

What subjects can I get help with?

Maths, English, Science, reading, and a range of other subjects as required.

What if I don't have any homework?

If you don't have any homework or assignments we can provide you with Maths or English worksheets. You can also practice reading and pronunciation with a tutor.

What do I need to do to join?

Young people (and their parents) can visit the Homework Club at anytime throughout the year. You will need to fill in an enrolment form, and this must be signed by your parents if you are under 18.

Multicultural Council of the NT Inc.

Shop 15, Malak Centre, Malak Place,
Darwin NT 0812
PO Box 299, Karama NT 0813

Phone: (08) 8945 9122
Fax: (08) 8945 9155